80/41 A.O.B.

- a) Mr Jones raised as a discussion point whether as a region we should now turn away from organising major events to placing more emphasis on grass roots development. It was the feeling of the meeting that we should continue our present policies and try to help each area develop the grass roots development in whatever way necessary and possible.
- b) Mr Nicholls felt that the National Finals should be organised by the National Office at a National venue as a long term objective.
- c) Mr Nicholls showed concern that he had not yet received from the EVA notice of the AGM or proposal forms for officers.
- d) England v Scotland - details arranged as follows L-

Saturday - Stroud
Sunday - Poole

Mr Richards to check on who would pay for travel between venues and what other expenditure we might have to cover.

Mr Nicholls suggested that a ticket order form should be ready for distribution in England and Scotland in October /November.
